

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

11 September 1957

1. Harry Wilhelm of the Bureau of the Budget called inquiring what the Agency position would be on submitting legislation for the next session of Congress. He was advised that this was a top priority matter on my agenda and that we hoped to determine a general position very soon and certainly prior to actually submitting any legislation we would be in touch with him.

1957-Legislation

2. The following information was learned today by telephone calls to the offices of these Congressmen:

Senator Mansfield - here at the present time.

His office did not know for how long.

Senator Dworshak - out of town at the present time. Will be in his office only for intervals of a day or so until sometime in December.

Senator Gore - not in town. Has several speaking engagements in Tennessee. May be in Saturday the 21st, not sure. Leaves the following Sunday or Monday for Europe.

Congressman Cole - here today and tomorrow, then leaving for Europe.

cc: DD/S

✓ Legislative Counsel